PERSONAL.

—G. B. McGowan was home on a visit over Sunday.

—John K. Crutcher was in from the west last week.

—C. W. Poole and Mr. Pennington, of Chicago, came to last Sunday.

—G. W. Miller, druggist for Dr. W. H. Ford, at Fairland, was over last Sunday.

—Col. L. B. Bell returned to Tahlequah to attend a conference at Fairland last night.

—Miss Haddock and Haddock went to Ft. Smith last Friday evening for a short visit with friends.

—Judge Geo. Clark, speaker of council, came home last week and was on our streets Saturday.

—Miss Adair Ashbrook returned Friday night from a good long visit in Colorado, greatly improved in health.

—Dr. Bagby went to Fort Smith Monday as a witness in the case of Miller, who killed Conductor Parrier, J. W. Barlow and Win. Scott are also witnesses for the defendant.

—George Tamblin, who has successfully represented Sealing and Tamblin, commission men at this place for several seasons, has been transferred to the Kansas City office of that firm.

—J. S. Morris, Esq., manager of Col. R. L. Owen's horse ranch and farm near the Kansas line, south of Canby, was a caller Tuesday.

They have some excellent Percheron Normans on the ranch which would be a credit to any country.

—G. H. Foster, from Osawatomie, was a caller Friday. In speaking of the Alliance he said that the belief that had gone through the fire of purification (politics) in this nation and had lost most of its material, and as a result was on a much better footing.

—Butler brothers, at Chouteau, expect to have a new building up and resume business about January 1st.

Mr. Robert Butler is assisting in the large establishment of the Turner Hardware Company at Muskogee.

—The Prairie fire case of Dr. Frazier was brought against the Kansas City firm that sold the engine and not the man who had bought it, as he, under the contract, would not become the owner until full payment had been made. He had made no payment.

—Drs. Ross and Bushhead, two of the nation's most popular young physicians, have recently located at Claremore. That town and community is in luck in securing these worthy young gentlemen. They have been carefully educated and are abundantly competent in the profession they have chosen.

—Mrs. Rebecca Davis, wife of Mr. Arthur and Will Chamberlin, died at Neosho Thursday last. Both ladies were over and returned Sunday accompanied by Mrs. Joe Koodykowitz.

Miss Hopkins and Mr. Ben Hopkins, the latter from Pennsylvania, and who will spend a few weeks in quail hunting, etc.

—John Barr, who was sent by Judge Parker to the Columbus penitentiary for three years for shooting at George Humphrey, the harness maker, is out and living near Eufaula. During his imprisonment he inherited some property and was pardoned out in eight months. He was seen by John Humphrey this week at Muskogee.

—Judge Clingan, of Chelsea, as an agriculturist, seems to out rank his neighbors in the production of the unique. Recently he cut open a pumpkin and found on the inside that some of the seeds had sprouted and put forth two perfectly green leaves.

The judge rated a stupor of July planting, weighing fourteen pounds and measuring thirty inches in circumference.

—Bert Walker takes exception to saying that piece of track between the two depots "connects nothing with nothing." "I would not do to say this section of track connects something with nothing, as hard feelings might be aroused by the railroad family in determining which was which. We will just refer the whole matter to Sam Burns with power to dispose of it."

A Troublesome Shipment.

An Adams express messenger on the Kansas division of the Frisco had a bear from Cherryvale for Springfield, which created quite a stir on the train which brought him to Cherryvale.

He was a crate made of two by four scantlings, and getting scared by the engine whistle broke out, drove the messenger from the car and smashed up everything that came in his way.

Finally he ran across a shipment of celery and this pacified him. While he was devouring the celery a council was held and it was finally decided to chloroform him, and the plan was successfully carried out. The train was side-tracked at a station and an hour and a half's time lost in disposing of him.

A Clairvoyant's Aid.

Jim Martin told, while in town last Friday, the circumstances of finding the gun with which John Sleighton was supposed to have been killed in his neighborhood some weeks ago.

A man named Miles, who thought a great deal of Sleighton went to a clairvoyant with the case. She told him that the crime was committed by Sleighton's nearest neighbor; that the weapon (she could not tell whether it was a gun or a pistol) had been thrown into deep water near by. Thus directed, Mr. Miles went back home and searched deep hole in the stream near by and just as he was giving up the hunt, on the side nearest the bank where mud tracks had been discovered, his foot touched something, and reaching down he brought up the gun. The weapon was identified as having been sold to George Summers by two men who had it pawned to him at Coffeyville, and the man was arrested and is now under indictment at Ft. Smith.

The Delaware Payment.

There is no information as to when the Delaware payment will be made. The agent said to a reporter Monday that he had received no notification of the money being available and placed to his credit in the St. Louis sub-treasury; that within a week after such notification he would be prepared to make the payment. He has received another agency fund of $18,000, the authority for which started upon its rounds shortly after the Delaware money; but there is a great difference between a regular fund of $18,000, and a special fund of over $400,000, and this incident need not produce discouragement. It is rather to be doubted if the payment will occur during the present calendar month, though it is by no means impossible. It is hardly possible, on the other hand, that it will take place later than the first week in December. Quoted as to whether he would pay Thanksgiving week and day, the agent said he would if the money was made accessible in time.

Grave Stones for Whiskey.

Once in a while, at least, a railroad agent runs against experiences other than pleasant. A year or so ago Bert Walker and George Collins unloaded, with other freight, a box of three small tombstones. As they were very heavy and it was not thought anyone but the owner would want them, they were left out on the platform over night and disappeared. "Tracer" followed "tracer," and the outcome was $28 dollars from Mr. Walker's salary.

A few weeks ago the grave stones were found and the reason of their having been taken discovered. The person who got them thought he had struck a box of whiskey.

Tobe Harles Dead.

A correspondent of the Phoenix, writing from Webberville, says that the particulars of the death of T. H. Harles, a gentleman very well known here and who owns a ranch on west fork of Big Cabin, some ten miles north-west of Vinita. The correspondent writes: "A deplorable accident has occurred in our town which resulted in the death of one of our best known and most esteemed Cherokee citizens. On Sunday night, Nov. 8th, Mr. T. H. Harles was killed by a favorite riding animal that he was about to unsaddle, and died Monday evening, about four o'clock. Mr. Harles' death will leave a gap in our community that will be hard to fill. His friends were legion, and if he ever had an enemy it is safe to say that he did not deserve one."
